Scholarship Briefing Sheet

Background

The Center for Entrepreneurial Studies in the Stillman School of Business is offering a scholarship to encourage the study of entrepreneurship. The Scholarship is funded through an endowment created by the generous support of alumni and friends of the Seton Hall University Center for Entrepreneurial Studies.

Eligible students can compete for a one-time scholarship of $1,350, which will be awarded on September 24, 2008 at the Third Annual Seton Hall University Entrepreneur Hall of Fame Dinner.

Eligibility

1. All students who are regularly admitted graduate students of the Stillman School of Business, or are enrolled in the Graduate Certificate of Entrepreneurship Program, are eligible to apply for this scholarship. The other eligibility requirements are as follows:
  - The student applicant must have accumulated as of September, 2008, a minimum of six credits at Seton Hall University.
  - The applicant must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0.
  - The applicant must be in good standing at the University.
  - The applicant must have already completed an entrepreneurship course at the Stillman School or intend to enroll in an entrepreneurship course during the 2008-09 academic year.
  - The applicant must submit an original essay entitled “Why I Want To Become an Entrepreneur.” The submission should consist of a maximum of three double-spaced pages.
2. Students must complete the attached application form in order to receive consideration for the award.
3. All applications must be received by Wednesday September 10, 2008, at 4 p.m.
